Williams visited in Dallas Saturday. Mrs. J. L. Turner and Sister Mrs. A. L. Hunt were here on a business Thursday. Miss Katie Gray of Canton is here with her sister, Mrs. Rowles. Mrs. White of Terrell was here Sunday. In spite of the bad weather, many people were out to hear Rev. Mrs. Clark preach, she delivered two soul stirring sermons. Messrs. Archie Thompson and N. C. Stinson of Longview passed through Sunday en route to Ft. Worth, stopping over a few hours with the latter's sister, Mrs. Lark Mathis.

MILFORD.

Milford, Texas, April 3.—Master Alfred Beatty, who has been in Dallas several weeks has returned home. Mr. Geo. Buckingham of Florence, Ala., who has been visiting his brother, Frank, our fellow-townman has returned home. Private Robert Johnson, Co. 17, 1st Armored Division, A. E. F., is at home. He states that for thirty-three days he heard the roaring of cannons and the machine guns' hiss. Mr. Ode Caruthers was the guest of Miss Georgia Daniels. Mrs. Helen Johnson went to Houston visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt. Buckingham. Mr. O. J. Jeffrey of Hillsboro is visiting his brother, David Yates. The store passed through Milford and left a boy at Rev. G. W. Burton. Mother and baby doing nicely. Richardson, Battle and McDaniel are striding Webb street. P. D. Beatty and the Burnett Brothers have put in a nice novelty and general business on Board-Ark street. Educational and Religious.

Rev. G. W. Burton in his third lecture before K. M. H. presents subject, "The Curse of Idleness," to the satisfaction of both teachers and student body. The young women from Cleburne, should have encouragement from all music lovers. They have not a line of testimonials behind them, but they have volume, pitch, strength, tone, ease, force and grace coupled with those virtues they have that thoroughness of drill and smoothness of presentation until each number and its successor did fair to bring the house down. Patrons went through the mud and rain to hear them and asked that at their convenience they repeat their visit. They promised. All churches were quiet Sunday. Rev. Burton went to Midlothian to hold a board. Rev. Harris was out of town a few days the past week.

CAMERON.

Cameron, Texas, April 5.—Mrs. Pascoe and her daughter, Alice left for Bolton last week visiting friends. Mr. James Anderson has opened a first-class barber shop just below Mackay's store. The high school served a special dinner last Friday night with a concert at night. Miss Katie Fulton spent a few days in the city last week. Miss Nona Cunningham and Mrs. Hoyt closed their school last Friday with exercises at night. Rev. Ashburn delivered an able address to the high school last Thursday. Rev. D. L. Williams of Waco was in the Saturday. He and Mrs. Curry conducted an educational rally at Gause, Sat. day. Mr. J. Gordon McPherson (Black Billy Sunday) has been called as pastor of Cameron Grove Baptist church to succeed Rev. W. M. Lofton is reported on the sick list this week. Mrs. Wilkerson, an old citizen of Cameron died last Sunday night where she has been ill for some time will be brought here for burial. Rev. J. W. MAY PEAK.

May Peak, Texas, April 3.—Private John has returned back to the state and is now on duty in an honorable discharge. Mrs. Mattie Franklin has been sick here for two weeks, but is now improving. Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lynn a baby girl. Mrs. J. P. Lynn has been sick here for two weeks but at the writing in up and doing fine please pay for the Express, it takes the money to keep it going. The program ordered at the school on Saturday night by Mrs. J. B. F. had, notwithstanding the inclement weather was quite a success, door receipts $3.20. Sunday school is preparing to pull off a big program and rally on Easter. Mrs. Leana Johnson has returned home after being absent for two weeks. We were sorry to learn of the death of the infant of Mrs. J. P. Lynn. We are looking forward to a school building rally soon and ask each boy of education and friends to the rally to do his best.

OTTO.

Otto, Texas, April 3.—A heavy rain fell in Otto Sunday and stopped the church service. A few neighbors were present. Mr. Frank Hardy is here from France, where he spent six months on the front. Miss Lela Butler of Houston is staying a few weeks with her mother, Miss Katie Gordon spent two days in Otto with friends. Quite a number of the Mart boys attended the school evening at Otto last Friday. Mr. Frank Hardy was called to Cameron in an ice factory.

E. church was led by Mrs. G. E. Echols, district president. Friday night was a financial success. All officers were installed by the pastor, Rev. S. D. Monely. It is their aim to "go over the top," as well as the other members of this church. Rev. S. A. Hayden, closed his revival last Wednesday night with many added to the church. Mr. Lonnie Polk, who was seriously injured at the L. & G. N. shops a few days ago is improving nicely. Remember next Sunday is regular pastoral at the Free Mission Baptist church. Rev. Hills, pastor come praying and paying. Let's make this a high day. Mr. Henry Taylor don't forget to leave him an Express every Saturday. You will find it at my residence every Saturday and Sunday. —Sallie Gaston.

WHARTON.

Wharton, Texas, April 3.—The farmers are jubilant over the rain which came in good time. We are sorry to report the death of Mrs. Maria Bryant after an illness of several months. She leaves several small children to mourn her loss. We received a telegram from Hon. W. E. King informing us that he was detained at home and could not be with us on the 27th ult., but he further tells us that he will be with us on the 13th of April. Among the soldiers who have taken part in the over sea fighting and are now back home among us are George Murphy, Daisy Coope and Luke Bailey. These boys are the picture of health and we believe to be good citizens. Please send a check every week for the Dallas Express as you will always find it at Menger Hodge grocery store. Miss Anna Martin of Kendleton made a business trip to Wharton returning the same day. Rev. Cornelius Andip passed enroute to his home Saturday.

PINELAND.

Pineland, Texas, April 3.—It was a jolly crowd who boarded the evening train bound for Cedar, Texas. Where we participated in a joint literary program with the high school of which Prof. C. J. Daniels is principal. Quite a record was made for both schools. The friendly spirit of rivalry made the program more interesting. There was not a public decision rendered. Suffice to say that every number on the program was an indication of careful preparation. Center high school will be represented at Pineland, April 12. Rallies at both churches Sunday were successful. Rev. L. V. Bolton, pastor of Evergreen arrived Sunday noon and has planned a great revival for the next ten or twelve days. Rev. E. K. Womington of Tenaha, visited and lectured to the school Wednesday and preached at Evergreen church Wednesday night. Mr. John Ross left Sunday for Longstreet, La., where he carried his little girl to live with her grandmother. Mrs. Camille Nobles is visiting relatives. Mrs. A. Hurdle, visited the bedside of a very sick relative while at Center. Let J. M. Hurdle take your subscription for the Express.

LAWTON.

Lawton, Texas, April 3.—The revival at the Baptist church closed last Sunday night, the meeting was a success with twenty additions to the church. The entire town was well pleased with the services rendered. Private Richard Young, who has recently arrived from over sea to join his wife. Private A. B. Holmes has gone to Paris in Okla., to visit his parents. While over sea he was made a Sergeant in his company. Mr. Charley Williams is to be commended on being an expert pilot. Lawton patrons must give their hearty co-operation.
